

MEDIEVAL SETTLEMENT RESEARCH GROUP

Spring Conference 2019

to be held at Lucy Cavendish College, University of Cambridge, Lady Margaret Road, Cambridge on Saturday 30th March 2019

New Discoveries in the Cambridge Region: Medieval Settlement in the A14 Corridor and its Wider Context

- 09.30 Registration
Morning Session – chaired by John Blair, University of Oxford
- 10.00 Richard Mortimer, CGMS
Excavation of a Middle Saxon ‘King’s Enclosure’ at Conington
- 10.40 Lyn Blackmore, Mola
Fit for a king? Anglo-Saxon material culture at Conington and in the wider project
- 11.20 Morning refreshments
- 11.40 Emma Jeffery, Headland Archaeology
The development of settlement near Brampton from the Middle Saxon to the post-Conquest periods
- 12.20 Lara Carretero, Mola
Medieval plant economy around Conington and Brampton: preliminary archaeobotanical results
- 13.00 Lunch
Afternoon Session – chaired by Stuart Wrathmell, President, MSRSG
- 14.00 John Blair, University of Oxford
Grid-planning as a tool for decoding Anglo-Saxon settlements
- 14.40 Sam Lucy, University of Cambridge
Early Anglo-Saxon settlement in East Anglia in context
- 15.20 Afternoon refreshments
- 15.40 Susan Oosthuizen, University of Cambridge
Making a living from the land, 400-1100
- 16.20 Christopher Dyer, University of Leicester
Houghton, a hamlet in a land of villages: the life and death of a medieval settlement

Conference fee: £37. Payment by cheque (payable to MSRSG) with complete slip below to Dr Susan Kilby, Institute for Name Studies, University of Nottingham, University Park, Nottingham, NG7 2RD. For all enquiries, including directions to the venue, please contact Dr Kilby at the above address or by email to secretarymsrg@gmail.com. All bookings must be received by Friday 22nd March 2019

I wish to attend the Spring Conference. I enclose a cheque for £.....

Name..... Email address.....

Address.....

Special dietary requirements.....